Paul's letter to the Galatians responds to the question of whether a Gentile must first become a Jew before he becomes Christian. Judaic teachers proclaimed that Christians must also follow Jewish law. On Paul's third missionary journey, he writes to the people of Galatia to assure them they can only gain entrance to Heaven through faith in Christ.

BIBLE STUDIES PATTERN SERIES

55 Galatians (Father's Choice)

This is Block 55 of a 73 block series representing the 39 books of the Old Testament, 7 books of the Apocrypha, and 27 books of the New Testament. I chose to name the blocks after books of the Bible as a testament to my faith. I call the finished quilt "Bible Studies." Whether Catholic or Protestant, I hope each block will have a special meaning to the quilt maker. For me, reviewing the books of the Bible recalled many of my favorite bible stories and passages. I include a bit of Bible history for each block. I have used, as a reference, the New Oxford Annotated Bible with the Apocrypha, Revised Standard Version, 1977, an Ecumenical Study Bible.

I chose The Gate to represent Galatians because Paul's letter makes it clear that the God's will is for Christianity to stand alone, rather than be a Jewish sect. Christianity is the gate to heaven.
