The Letter of Paul to the Colossians was written when Paul learned that false teachers had arrived at the church in Colossae and were advocating practices that followed Jewish rituals. Paul sent this letter to the Colossians while he was in prison. The letter quotes doctrine and reminds Colossians of the supremacy of Christian love.

58 Colossians (One Way)

This is Block 58 of a 73 block series representing the 39 books of the Old Testament, 7 books of the Apocrypha, and 27 books of the New Testament. I chose to name the blocks after books of the Bible as a testament to my faith. I call the finished quilt "Bible Studies." Whether Catholic or Protestant, I hope each block will have a special meaning to the quilt maker. For me, reviewing the books of the Bible recalled many of my favorite bible stories and passages. I include a bit of Bible history for each block. I have used, as a reference, the New Oxford Annotated

Bible with the Apocrypha, Revised Standard Version, 1977, an Ecumenical Study Bible.

I chose One Way to represent Paul's letter to the Colossians because Paul's letter reminded the Colossians of the One True Way. He warned them of the consequences of following false teachers, and encouraged them to lead a true Christian life.
